WILLIAM CLAY FORD

President

He became a regular follower of the Detroit Lions when he was only 10 years old in the days when they played their games at U-D Stadium. He was an avid fan in the era of Dutch Clark, Ace Gutowsky, George Christensen and others in the mid-1930's after the franchise was moved to Detroit in 1934 from Portsmouth, Ohio.

In 1964, he became the club's sole owner. Still a fan, he now is daily at his desk to supervise the operation of the professional football club as it moves into the decade of the 1970's off a strong 9-4-1 record last season.

Busy with civic projects on a local, state and national basis, Bill Ford also plays a major role in executive meetings of the 26-team National Football League in addition to occupying a key position in the automotive company which carries the family name.

He became a board member of the Lions' organization in 1956, was named president in 1961 and then bought out the group of stockholders who had purchased the club in 1948 from Fred Mandel of Chicago. As its sole owner, Mr. Ford takes the company back to its local origin in 1934 when it was owned by the late George A. Richards.

In addition to his daily duties as owner and president of the club, he also carries the responsibilities as vice president of the Ford Motor Co. in charge of product planning and design. He is the grandson of the late Henry Ford, founder of the motor company and the youngest of four children of the late Edsel B. Ford.

As a community leader, Mr. Ford has been president of the Henry Ford Museum and Greenfield Village. He is a trustee of the Thomas A. Edison Foundation, secretary-treasurer of the Henry Ford Hospital in Detroit, president of the Edsel B. Ford Institute for Medical Research, a trustee of the Michigan Heart Association and chairman of the 1968 Detroit Area Council Eagle Scout recognition program.

He has served as national campaign chairman of the United Cerebral Palsy Association on four occasions and is a director of the United Foundation in addition to serving as chairman of the Sports Enterprises Group campaign. He is also a director of the National Tennis Hall of Fame.

A graduate of Yale University in 1949, Ford—now 45—has held positions in sales and advertising and in industrial relations. He was general manager of the Continental Division before assuming his present duties with the company in 1956. He has been a member of the Ford Motor Co. board of directors since 1948.

An avid sports enthusiast, he played varsity tennis and soccer at Yale in addition to being a low handicap golfer. He is a member of the Country Club of Detroit.

Mr. Ford is married to the former Martha Firestone of Akron, Ohio. They have three daughters—Martha, Sheila, Elizabeth, and one son, William Clay, Jr. The Fords reside in Grosse Pointe Farms, Michigan.

RUSSELL THOMAS

Vice President and General Manager

The multi-problem job of the day-by-day operation of the Detroit Lions is the property of a former Lion player who joined the team 25 years ago and has been a member of the organization in almost all of the intervening seasons.

Russ Thomas possesses a perfect background for his demanding job. He was an outstanding lineman as a player, became an assistant on the coaching staff, scouted future opponents and evaluated collegiate players before he was named director of player personnel in 1964.

Three years later he was elevated to his current post of vice president and general manager. Thomas also was a member of the Lions broadcast crew in addition to serving as an assistant football coach at St. Bonaventure College.

A native of West Virginia, Thomas came out of that state as one of the most-sought-after high school football and track stars. He held the national high school shot-put record before enrolling at Ohio State where he played on national championship teams under Coach Paul Brown.

He was drafted by the Lions in 1946 and played four seasons before knee operations ended his playing career. A Detroit-area resident for 23 years, Russ and his wife, Dorothy, have two sons, John and Jim.

EDWIN J. ANDERSON

Executive Vice President

He was a key figure when a group of Detroit businessmen purchased the Detroit Lion franchise in 1948 from Chicagoan Fred Mandel. He was named club president in 1949 and filled that position for 12 seasons. In all but three of those years, he also served as general manager.

Edwin J. Anderson now is starting his 23rd consecutive season as a club executive, a distinction which makes him one of the "elder statesmen" in the 26-team National Football League.

His present duties are chiefly concerned in over-all league policies with special emphasis on directing Detroit's finance and policy-making committee.

A graduate of Beloit College, Anderson was an outstanding athlete. He entered the advertising and sales fields and was president of a Detroit brewery from 1941 until 1958.

Anderson has an enviable record of civic accomplishment, including the general chairmanship of the 1945 Community Fund, the presidency of the Children's Hospital of Detroit for three years, and the presidency of the Birmingham Community Center for two years. He still is a member of the board of the Lumberman's Mutual Casualty Company and the American Motorist Insurance Company.

Anderson lives in Bloomfield Hills, Mich., with his wife, Sunny.

1970 Detroit Lions Coaching Staff

JOE SCHMIDT Head Coach

It took Joe Schmidt a couple of years to make the transition from a college fullback at Pitt to a middle linebacker with the Detroit Lions when he first hit the Motor City back in 1953.

But once he made the switch, he was a consistent winner.

It took him a couple of years to get the Lions untracked when he was named their head coach in 1967.

But now as he strides into his fourth season as the 11th field boss of the Lions in their 37-year history, there are reasons to believe that the pieces for a winning pattern are falling into their proper places.

In 1969, the resurgent Lions fashioned a strong 9-4-1 record, a mark which put them second only to the divisional champions in the NFL. Only three other Detroit teams (1934-1953-1962) ever won more than nine in one season.

They lost only one of their final eight games last year. They racked up three shutouts, and missed a fourth by only a field goal, as they topped all 26 professional teams in the important department of holding their opponents scoreless.

"We have more depth now at all positions than we'd had in a long, long time," Schmidt insists. "We have some good-looking rookies coming in. We have other young players coming back from last year with a lot of valuable experience under their belt. These are kids we threw in there when we were hit by a rash of injuries to veterans. Ordinarily we wouldn't have been able to give new men that much action. But we had to . . . and it worked out. . . ."

No coach predicts a title winner at the start of a season. Schmidt is no exception. But he is insistent that the Lions are better equipped for the race than they have been in many years.

Joe joined the Lions as a seventh draft choice from the University of Pittsburgh back in 1953. When he hung up his playing uniform 13 brilliant seasons later, every honor in professional football had come his way. Now he is shooting for still another one . . . to be head coach of a champion.

Joe was named to the Pro Bowl squad 10 times in his 13 seasons despite two shoulder operations. He captained the Lions nine straight years, was voted to the NFL All-Pro team on eight occasions and saw his teammates name him their Most Valuable Player in 1955-57-58 and again in 1961.

He came out of college as a fullback but was groomed for the job of middle linebacker, a position unheard of prior to the 1950's. Up to that time, pro teams utilized a seven-man line on defense—usually anchored by a big man like Les Bingaman in the center.

The new trend called for the use of a four-man defensive line by dropping off the ends and pulling back the middle guard. Schmidt played a corner linebacker post for several years until the Lions adopted the four-man line principle.

When they did, Joe was moved into the middle linebacker slot. He stayed there until he retired as a player and is rated by all experts as the greatest of his era.

Joe resides in the Detroit area with his wife, Marilyn, and his five children.

JIMMY DAVID
(Over-all Defense)

The Detroit defense ranked second among all 26 professional football teams last season in holding opponents to the fewest yards over 14 games. It pitched three shutouts and that was tops for both sections in the National Football League.

But Jimmy David, whose job it is to over-see the defense, still isn't satisfied. "You never are," he says, "until you're No. 1 in everything. That's what we're aiming at. . . ."

A stubborn defense has long been a Lion trademark. David is one of the men who helped establish that tradition as a player. He returned to Detroit in 1967, 15 years after he first joined them as their 22nd draftee in 1952.

He was a standout defensive back here for eight seasons, was named to the Pro Bowl six times and played on Lion teams that won four Western Division titles and three NFL championships. A hard hitter, he intercepted 36 passes during his playing career.

David retired in 1960 and turned to coaching. He spent three years on the staff of the Los Angeles Rams and then spent three more with the San Francisco 49ers before returning to Detroit to re-join his former Lion teammate, Joe Schmidt.

A graduate of Colorado State, he was one of three members of a team from that university who went on to establish themselves as Lion stars. The other two were Jack Christiansen (latest member of the National Pro Hall of Fame) and Thurman McGraw, assistant athletic director at Colorado State.

David is married. Wife Fran, and family, are full-time Detroit area residents.

JIM MARTIN
(Defensive Line)

Like Head Coach Joe Schmidt and Defensive Co-ordinator Jimmy David, the Lions' line coach is no stranger to long-time Detroit fans.

Jim Martin is back for his fourth season as assistant coach after 11 years as a standout defensive Lion performer. He was a great competitive player and he coaches the same way in addition to tutoring kickers and punters.

His career total as a Lion booter with 56 field goals still stands as a Detroit record. His 259 points, all by kicks, is the third best in Lion history. He played with four NFL teams and served as defensive line coach with the Denver Broncos and at Idaho State.

As a collegiate All-American at Notre Dame, big Jim still ranks as one of the greatest linemen in Irish history. He was named All-American at two positions . . . end and then at tackle. He started 34 consecutive games at Notre Dame and that's another record.

Jim spent one season with the Cleveland Browns before moving to Detroit in 1951. When he left 11 years later, he had played a vital role in three NFL championships and four Divisional titles.

BILL McPEAK
(Over-all Offense)

This is the year the Lions hope to see their quarterbacks and runners get through the rigors of a season without the seige of injuries which has hit the Detroit offense with sledge-hammer effect in the recent past.

"It's a cinch we have the law of averages on our side for 1970," insists Bill McPeak, whose task it is to put points on the scoreboard. "We haven't had our passers or our top runners get through a full season yet. . . ."

This is McPeak's fourth year with Detroit and his 14th as a professional football coach following a strong career as a player with the Pittsburgh Steelers from 1949-1957. He was picked for three Pro Bowl games and joined the coaching staff of the Steelers after he ended his playing career.

McPeak moved to Washington as offensive backfield coach of the Redskins in 1959. After two years as an assistant, he was elevated to the post of head coach in 1961 and handled that job for five years through 1965. He spent 1966 as an analyst of NFL games for CBS and then came to the Lions the following season.

A product of New Castle, Pa., he was a standout collegiate star at Pittsburgh when he was tutored by three coaches—the late Clark Shaughnessy (1945), Wes Fesler (1946) and Mike Milligan (1947-48).

CHUCK KNOX
(Offensive Line)

He is a stickler for detail built on fundamentals and that is why Chuck Knox is optimistic as he goes into his fourth season as offensive line coach.

"We've been working on the little things for three years now," he explains. "Now we feel those little details are ready to produce big dividends. . . ."

Knox came to the Lions after four year as the welder of the offensive line for the New York Jets under Weeb Ewbank. His background is all-football. He was a guard at Juniata College in his home state of Pennsylvania and after four standout years as a player was retained as a member of the college coaching staff.

He was head coach in prep ranks for three seasons before moving to Wake Forest in 1959-60 as line coach. He then moved to the University of Kentucky for two more seasons under Head Coach Blanton Collier (now at Cleveland) and Charley Bradshaw before getting the call to join the New York Jets.

Like all members of the Lion coaching staff, Knox is a full-time employee. The Knox family resides in the Detroit area.

JOHN NORTH
(Receivers)

He is the senior member of the staff as he moves into his sixth season as a Lion coach and John North thinks his pass catchers are ready.

Both Charlie Sanders and Earl McCullough are back for their third season after two fine years. Larry Walton, a 1969 rookie, saw a lot of action and has speed that nears that of McCullough. Bill Malinchak and Johnny Wright are back again and there is a new crop of rookie talent.

North was a receiver in his collegiate days at Vanderbilt and also as a professional with the Baltimore Colts. He is starting his 20th consecutive season as a coach and has touched all bases from preps to pros with stops at Tallassee (Ala.) high school in 1951-52, assistant coach at Tennessee Tech in 1953-54, assistant coach at Kentucky from 1955 to 1961, assistant at Louisiana State in 1963-64 before joining the Lions in 1965.

John is from Old Hickory, Tenn. and resides with his family on a year-round basis in the Detroit area.

1969 LIONS SEASON REVIEW

(Scorer's Name in Capitals)

SEPT. 21—DETROIT 13, PITTSBURGH 16, at Pittsburgh (51,360)

The Lions carried a string of five straight pre-season victories (one defeat) into their season's opener. They took a 3-0 lead at 9:25 of the opening period on MANN'S 23-yard field goal after Vaughn recovered a Steeler fumble at the 29. Just before the field goal, Munson saw Triplett muff an apparent touchdown pass and Malinchak step out of the endzone before snagging another one.

The Steelers tied it late in the period when Hinton recovered a Triplett fumble on the Detroit 27 and MINGO booted a 27-yarder. Pittsburgh drove 58 yards to open the second quarter and settled for an 18-yard boot by MINGO. Pitt made it 9-3 just before intermission when MINGO kicked a 40-yarder.

Detroit drove 65 yards late in the third period before stalling on the Steeler 15. MANN made it 9-6 with a 23-yarder. The Lions went ahead at 9:57 of the final quarter when Karras recovered a Steeler fumble on the Pitt 27. Munson hit McCULLOUGH with a 12-yard touchdown pass and MANN converted to make it 13-9, Detroit. After the kickoff, Shiner hit Hilton for 23 yards on a big third-down play and then passed to Jefferson who caught the ball after Weger had tipped it at the sideline. With the ball on the 6, BANKSTON ran around left end for the touchdown, MINGO converted to end the scoring.

(Munson—19 of 34 attempts for 160 yards, one touchdown; Farr carried 10 times for 35 yards, caught 10 passes for 59; Sanders—caught four passes for 43.)

SEPT. 28—DETROIT 24, NEW YORK 0, at Detroit (54,358)

The game was scoreless until midway in the second period when the Giants gambled for a first down with the two inches to go at midfield. The Lions stopped Koy for no gain, took over the ball and slashed 50 yards in seven plays with FARR going the last two yards. MANN converted and it was 7-0. The Lions threatened again before the intermission and then scored quickly after taking the second-half kickoff.

Sanders made a leaping snare of a Munson pass for 47 yards after Eddy had sped for 11. Then Munson hit EDDY in the endzone for a 14-yard TD, MANN converted and it was 14-0. Karras recovered a Giant fumble on the next drive and the Lions added three more points on MANN'S 39-yard field goal.

At the start of the fourth period, Tarkenton — under heavy pressure all afternoon — couldn't move the Giants. Gogolak punted from his own 31 to BARNEY who grabbed it on his own 26 and rambled 74 yards for another Lion touchdown. Plum took over for Tarkenton but the Detroit defense bottled the Giant attack effectively. The Lions had the ball on the New York 27 with a first down when the game ended.

(Munson — Completed 10 of 22 for 134 and one touchdown; Farr — Carried 12 times for 52 yards, Watkins — Carried nine times for 20, Eddy — Carried four for 41; McCullough — Caught 3 passes for 25; Sanders — Caught 2 for 56.)

OCT. 5—DETROIT 28, CLEVELAND 21, at Cleveland (82,933)

The Browns struck first after intercepting a Landry pass on the Cleveland 17. Nelson hit on six straight passes to reach the Detroit 3 before a holding penalty moved the ball back to the 21. Then Nelson hit WARFIELD in the endzone.

Detroit tied it early in the second period when Munson passed to McCULLOUGH for 13 yards in the endzone to cap a 78-yard march. Scott returned the kickoff 65 yards and the Browns went ahead, 14-7, when Nelson's pass to COLLINS was good in the endzone for 23 yards. On the following kickoff, the ball bounced off Yarbrough and the Browns recovered on the Lion 23. Nelson hit COLLINS again on the second play for a 23-yard touchdown with only 5 seconds left and the Browns led, 21-7 at the half.

Detroit came back strong. Weger got them going when he recovered a Brown miscue at midfield on a bad snap for an attempted field goal. Munson hit on six of seven passes before throwing to WRIGHT in the endzone for 26 yards. Robb recovered another Brown fumble on the next series at the Cleveland 31 and in five plays the Lions scored again with EDDY bumping in from the one. MANN tied the score with 56 seconds gone in the final period.

LeBeau intercepted a Nelson pass on the next series to give Detroit the ball on the Cleveland 44. Munson kept the ball on the ground with Eddy and Farr going 32 yards in five plays before Munson ran for 10 more to reach the 12. FARR went in for the score, and the Lions won, 28-21.

(Munson — Completed 11 of 21 for 169 yards and two touchdowns; Farr — Gained 64 yards on 19 carries, Eddy — Gained 55 on 11 carries; Sanders — Caught 4 passes for 47, Wright and Watkins each grabbed 3 for 51 and 43 yards respectively.)

OCT. 12—DETROIT 17, GREEN BAY 28, at Detroit (58,384)

The Packers scored twice in the first period to lead 14-0. The opening touchdown came after Wood intercepted a Munson pass and returned it to the Lion 44. Two long passes from Starr to Dale put the ball at the two and WILLIAMS busted in for the score. The Pack scored the next time it got the ball after a punt. Starr hit on three passes to cover 51 yards, the third one to DALE for 40 yards and a touchdown.

After the kickoff, Farr broke loose for 52 yards to the Packer 18. Four plays later, FARR went over from the three on a great block by Chuck Walton. Green Bay twice drove into scoring territory but the Lions, led by Karras and Rush, threw them back. Rush recovered a fumble at midfield late in the period and Detroit slashed to the 17 before MANN booted a 24-yard field goal with 7 seconds left in the half to make it 14-10.

Three costly Lion penalties helped Green Bay move 54 yards to score again with DALE capping it with a four-yard pass from Starr. Detroit came right back to go 66 yards in nine plays with Sanders gaining 43 yards on two catches before FARR broke in from the 2 to make it 21-17 on the last play of the third period.

With 5 minutes left and Munson out of action with a broken hand, the Lions roughed Anderson on a Packer punt and Green Bay went on to score after a 50-yard pass to Hampton to reach the Lion one. HAMPTON then bumped in.

(Munson — Hit on 8 of 16 for 80, Landry hit on 3 of 8 for 21; Farr — Gained 91 on 14 carries, Eddy — Gained 39 on 10 carries; Sanders — Caught 5 passes for 73 yards, McCullough 2 for 16.)

OCT. 19—DETROIT 13, CHICAGO 7, at Detroit (54,732)

Landry took over for the injured Bill Munson (who broke his hand the previous week) and in the first period, Mel Farr went out with a knee injury which sidelined him for the remainder of the season. The Bears struck first on a quick 57-yard drive early in the second quarter when Douglass passed to WALLACE for the last 32 yards.

The Lions struck back when Williams returned the next kickoff 86 yards to the Bear 14. After two line smashes gained two yards, Landry hit WRIGHT who made a juggling catch in the endzone.

Detroit took the second-half kickoff and drove 70 yards before the march was stopped at the Chicago 13. Biggest gain was a 25-yard sprint by Landry to reach the 22. MANN booted a 20-yard field goal and Detroit led, 10-7. After a 38-yard field goal attempt by Percival was wide at the outset of the final period, the Bears made a serious threat by moving 47 yards before Concannon, in for Douglass on a third-down play, ran right end, was hit by Walker and fumbled with Walker recovering at the Lions' 18.

Landry promptly moved Detroit into field goal range, thanks to a great catch and run of 28 yards by Sanders, before MANN kicked a 46-yarder to give the Lions their final three points. Detroit had possession on the Bear 14 at the end of a game played in the rain.

(Landry — Completed 9 of 21 passes for 121 yards and one touchdown, also ran 5 times for 57 yards; Eddy and Watkins each carried 14 times with Watkins gaining 51 and Eddy 38; Sayers carried 9 times for 12 yards; Wright — Caught 3 passes for 31, McCullough had 2 for 43 while Sanders had two for 37.)

OCT. 26—DETROIT 10, MINNESOTA 24, at Minnesota (47,900)

Minnesota jumped off to a first-period 3-0 lead when COX booted a 33-yard field goal and then hit for a touchdown on the first play of the second quarter when Kapp fired a 41-yard pass to WASHINGTON when the Lion defender slipped and fell. The play followed an apparent Lion interception (by Weger) but pass interference was ruled. COX converted to make it 10-0.

The Lions retrieved three points after the kickoff when MANN booted a 50-yard field goal (his longest of the year) at 3:27. The strong Viking defense forced the Lions to punt from the Detroit 4 and Minnesota took over at the Lion 39. Three passes, the third to Washington, put the ball on the one and BROWN bucked in for the touchdown at 10:31. Minnesota scored again before the intermission after Landry's pass was intercepted on the Lion 44 by Mackbee. A penalty moved it to the 29 before Kapp hit Grim on a pass which reached the one yard line. OSBORN dove in and it was 24-3 at the half.

The third period was scoreless before Detroit took over on the Viking 46 and drove in for a touchdown with EDDY capping the drive with a one-yard lunge. MANN made the conversion and that ended the scoring.

(Landry — Completed 14 of 28 passes for 116 yards, also ran for 40 yards on 8 carries to lead both teams as a runner; Watkins — Gained 34 yards on 11 carries; McCullough — Caught 4 passes for 44 yards, Watkins — Caught 4 for 24, Sanders — Caught 3 for 33.)

NOV. 2—DETROIT 26, at SAN FRANCISCO 14, (35,100)

Detroit came off with three points the first time the Lions got the ball. MANN kicked a 31-yarder before missing one of 38 yards six minutes later. He got another chance on the next series when Weger intercepted a Spurrier pass and returned it to the S.F. 36. MANN kicked from the 37 and it was 6-0. Landry was playing on a sprained ankle and was limping badly.

The 49ers took a short-lived lead at the start of the second period when Cunningham rambled 33 yards to reach the Lion 20. Spurrier passed to WILLARD for an 18-yard touchdown.

Walton returned the kickoff 35 yards to the S.F. 38. Detroit scored on a 2-yard smash by WATKINS to regain the lead.

Williams sped 71 yards on the second-half kickoff to the S.F. 17. On the third play, Landry hit SANDERS in the endzone for a 13-yard touchdown. Barney grabbed a Spurrier punt on the Lion 40. He zig-zagged 50 yards before he stumbled at the 10. Stopped at the 4, the Lions came away with 3 more points on MANN'S 12-yard field goal.

Vaughn intercepted a Spurrier pass midway through the final period and Barton came in as Detroit quarterback. Three runs gained 15 yards before MANN kicked a 27-yarder to make it 26-7. Spurrier hit on five straight passes from his own 21 after the next kickoff, the fifth one being a 51-yard bomb to THOMAS.

(Landry — Completed 3 of 12 passes for 42 yards; Taylor — Gained 56 yards on 22 carries, Triplett — Gained 42 on 11 tries; McCullough, Sanders and Wright each caught one pass. Weger, Barney, LeBeau and Vaughn each intercepted a pass.)

NOV. 9—DETROIT 27, ATLANTA 21, at Detroit (53,242)

Landry led the Lions on a 66-yard scoring drive the first time they got the ball. Taylor smashed 26 yards while Landry completed his first 4 passes, the last a 13-yard touchdown flip to McCULLOUGH.

Atlanta couldn't dent the Detroit defense and the Lions took over on their 20. Landry directed the drive to the Atlanta one-yard line as the period ended. On the first play of the second period, TRIPLETT banged over.

The Falcons came back with a 67-yard march climaxed by an 11-yard pass from Johnson to COGDILL. WILLIAMS then returned the Atlanta kickoff 96 yards for a TD and 21-7 Lion lead. Late in the period, Karras intercepted a Johnson pass at midfield and rumbled 22 yards to the Falcon 37. After the drive bogged down MANN kicked a 13-yarder to make it 24-7 at intermission time.

Late in the third quarter, the Falcons zipped 60 yards in only five plays with BUTLER diving the final yard.

Moore made a key recovery of a Falcon fumble at the Lion 25 to thwart Atlanta at the start of the final period. Later, Weger recovered another Falcon fumble at the Atlanta 25 and MANN'S 34-yard field goal made it 27-14.

Atlanta struck for the final touchdown, a 45-yard throw to BUTLER.

(Landry — Hit on 9 of 14 passes for 103 yards and 1 touchdown; Taylor — Carried 17 times for 69 yards, Triplett — Carried 16 times for 38; Sanders — Caught 2 passes for 52.)

NOV. 16—DETROIT 20, ST. LOUIS 0 at Detroit (51,749)

Each team put on a drive in a scoreless first period which resulted in missed field goal attempts (Mann from the 50) and Baaken (from the 44). The Lions put on another march at the start of the second quarter and when it stalled at the 6, MANN'S field goal from the 13 was good.

Detroit took over early in the third period at their own 35 after a Cardinal punt. After gaining seven yards in two rushes, Landry hit Walton for 15 yards to the St. Louis 42. On a trick play, Landry handed to Taylor who ran to his left before handing off to Walton who ran to his right, stopped and arched a perfect 43-yard pass to McCULLOCH who was all alone. MANN converted and it was 10-0. St. Louis marched 65 yards before Walker intercepted a Johnson pass at the Detroit one-foot line.

The Lions struck twice in the fourth period. They slashed 73 yards in four plays, two of them long passes to McCullouch (41 yards) and to SANDERS (26 yards and a TD). After Barney intercepted a Johnson pass on the Lion 41 late in the game, Detroit got to the 17 before MANN booted a 25-yard field goal to wind up the scoring as the Lions racked up their second shutout of the season.

(Landry — Connected on 14 of 21 passes for 200 yards and a touchdown; McCullouch — Caught 5 passes for 117 yards and a touchdown, Sanders — Caught 4 for 71 yards and a TD, Walton — Caught 4 for 38 and threw a 43-yard touchdown pass; Triplett — 9 carries for 31 yards; Taylor — 9 carries for 17.)

NOV. 23—DETROIT 16, GREEN BAY 10, at Green Bay (50,861)

The Lions moved 65 yards for the first time they got the ball and settled for three points when MANN kicked a 23-yarder. A fake punt gained 33 yards to set up the score when Triplett, in a blocking role for Barney, took the pass from center and ran around the right side to reach the Packer 16. Rasmussen recovered a Packer fumble on the G.B. 46 late in the period and when Barney was forced to punt, a fumble by Pitts was recovered on the Packer 19. MANN booted his second field goal from the 21 and it was 6-0.

Another pass interception by Barney gave the Lions the ball on their own 29 and Landry took them in for a touchdown. McCullouch grabbed two passes for 33 yards on the march before LANDRY, who had earlier run for 14, faded back to pass from the Packer 4, saw an opening up the middle, and ran in for the score.

The Lions scored again at the end of a 70-yard surge before the end of the half as Landry completed five passes to reach the 24. MANN kicked a 31-yard field goal to make it 16-0 at intermission time.

Green Bay's only scoring chance in the third period was a missed 31-yard field goal by Mercer. But he did kick a 27-yarder at the start of the final quarter. Mann missed a 43-yarder with less than two minutes to go in the game and the Packers then put on a last-ditch drive of 80 yards on five passes by Horn, the last one to DOWLER for 10 yards and a touchdown.

(Landry — Completed 12 of 24 for 108 and ran for 57 yards to lead both teams; McCullouch — Caught 6 passes for 74 yards; Eddy — Carried 11 times for 46; Triplett — Carried 5 times for 44.)

NOV. 27—DETROIT 0, MINNESOTA 27, at Detroit (57,906)

For the second straight year, the Thanksgiving Day game was played in adverse weather conditions, this time a steady, wet snowstorm. Neither team could move the ball until Dickson blocked a Barney punt at the Detroit 16 with Warwick recovering. OSBORN scored on a one-yard plunge four plays later.

Early in the second period, Barney punted from his endzone and the Vikes took over at the Lion 34. COX kicked a 41-yard field goal on fourth down and it was 10-0. Detroit put on a 77-yard march as Landry hit on five passes to reach the Minnesota 21. Mann's try for a field goal was blocked as the half ended.

Later in the third period, Marshall recovered an Eddy fumble at the Lion 23. Five plays reached the 6 before Kapp hit REED in the endzone for a touchdown. The Lions moved again to start the final quarter until Landry's pass was batted into the air by Page, intercepted by Marshall who ran from the Lion 45 until hit on the 15. He then made a no-look lateral to PAGE who went in for the score.

Another Landry pass was intercepted by Warwick and COX kicked a 38-yard field goal to end the scoring. A Mann field goal attempt from the 19 was blocked at the gun.

(Landry — Completed 12 of 25 for 93, Munson — Completed 5 of 7 for 46; Sanders — Caught 3 passes for 47; Triplett — Gained 25 in 8 carries, Eddy — Gained 26 on 11 tries.)

DEC. 7—DETROIT 17, BALTIMORE 17, at Baltimore (60,238)

It was another bad-weather day with snow and rain most of the game. The Colts opened the scoring early in the second period when MICHAELS booted a 12-yard field goal. Detroit quickly got on the board when Munson moved the Lions to the 23 from where TRIPLETT busted over the middle and went all the way. Exactly 13 seconds later, Detroit scored again when Duncan took the kickoff to the Colt 25, was hit by Mooney and fumbled. WRIGHT picked up the loose ball and dashed 26 yards to score. LeBeau intercepted a pass after the next kickoff but Mann's field goal try from the 30 was blocked.

Early in the third quarter, Lee got off a 52-yard punt. The Lions called for a fair catch, the ball hit Walton and bounced into the endzone where the Colts recovered. The rules specifically call this play a touchback and the Lions were given possession on the 20. The fans booed so loudly that Munson had to stop play nine times. On the 10th try, he hit Sanders for a 32-yard gain. The drive bogged at the Colt 35 and Mann's field goal try was wide.

The Colts scored quickly on an 80-yard surge. Matte hit Hinton for 46 yards on a pass-option play before Morrall completed an 18-yarder to COLE. Mann missed on two more field goal tries of 45 and 42 yards before the Colts went ahead at 6:12 of the final quarter on a pass to HINTON for 32. MICHAELS converted and the Colts led, 17-14.

Detroit took the kickoff and moved to midfield before Barney had to punt. Havrilak took it at the goal, was hit and the fumble was recovered by Goich of the Lions at the Baltimore 3. The center-snap was fumbled and Munson was dropped for a loss to the 12. A holding penalty was called on the Colts for an automatic first down but officials neglected to advance the ball. Triplett hit to the 10, and another Colt penalty moved the ball to the 5. Three straight passes were incomplete in the endzone although each would-be receiver got his hands on the ball. On 4th down, MANN'S 12-yard field goal was good to tie the final score at 17-17.

DEC. 14—DETROIT 28, LOS ANGELES 0 at Detroit (53,256)

For the third straight game, the weather was bad with snow and light misty rain. Detroit took the opening kickoff on its 32 and went to paydirt on eight plays with Munson covering the final 32 with a perfect pass to McCULLOCH. The Rams couldn't cross midfield until late in the period and then saw Barney recover a fumbled Ram pass at the 10 and run it to the 25 as the period ended. Two plays later Munson found TRIPLETT all alone at the Ram 24 and hit him perfectly for a 62-yard touchdown.

Los Angeles tried a 42-yard field goal midway in the period. Barney ran it back 14 yards and the Lions were off again. They moved to the Rams' 28 with the big play being a fake punt on 4th down by Barney who ran from his own 17 to the 44. MANN booted a 38-yard field goal at 13:57. After the kickoff, Sweetan faded into his endzone to pass. The Rams were detected holding in the endzone and the Lions were awarded a two-point safety to make it 19-0 at the intermission.

The Lion defense forced a Ram punt at the start of the third period and went from their own 38 to the Ram 15 on slashes by Triplett and Taylor before MANN kicked a 22-yarder to boost the score to 22-0.

The fourth period saw MANN kick two more field goals of 17 and 42 yards to wind up the scoring as the Lion defense held the Rams to only 96 yards (41 on the ground) while Munson steered Detroit to a 332 total.

(Munson — Completed 8 of 17 for 192 yards and two touchdowns; Taylor—Caught 3 for 22, Sanders—Caught 2 for 71, McCullouch—Caught 2 for 67; Triplett — Gained 83 on 24 carries, Taylor — Gained 50 on 19.)

DEC. 21—DETROIT 20, CHICAGO 3, at Chicago (41,879)

LeBeau's interception of a Concannon pass gave Detroit the ball on their own 35 late in the opening period and in four plays they scored. Sanders caught one for 25 and then Munson hit him again from the 27 and SANDERS took it in the endzone. MANN converted and it was 7-0. Late in the second period, the Lions scored again when MANN kicked a 43-yard field goal.

Less than two minutes later, MANN booted a 31-yarder with only 31 seconds left in the half after Barney had set up the action with a 24-yard punt return to reach the Chicago 38. It was Mann's 100th point of the season.

After a series of punt exchanges, the Bears got on the board at the end of the third period when PERCIVAL kicked a 38-yarder. Mann missed one from the 37 late in the game but the Lions added another touchdown with less than 4 minutes to go after Weger intercepted a Concannon pass on the Bears' 21 and returned it to the two. TRIPLETT went over tackle on the first play for the touchdown. MANN'S conversion was good for the 26th straight time and the Lions won it, 20-3.

(Munson — Completed 10 of 19 for 106 yards and one touchdown; Sanders — Caught 5 passes for 62 yards and a TD; Taylor — Carried 25 times for 95 yards, Triplett — Carried 14 times for 43.)

HISTORY OF THE DETROIT LIONS

Professional football . . . NFL brand . . . first came to Detroit in 1925 when Jimmy Conzelman was granted the franchise in exchange for the startling payment of $50.

But not even the colorful Conzelman, one of the game's most-popular and talented figures, could entice enough fans through his ticket gates. The local franchise was dropped from the league in 1927, re-instated a year later and then declared inactive in 1930. It looked like the end.

Then, in 1934, a very successful radio station owner named George Richards decided that Detroit needed a good pro team. He went out, bought one, then moved it here.

The team was the Portsmouth (Ohio) Spartans and it was a strong one. Coached by George (Potsy) Clark, the newly-named Lions won 10 straight games to open the 1934 season, the first seven by shutouts.

After outscoring the opposition, 215 to 27, in winning those 10 in a row, the Lions then lost their last three games by a total of only nine points and the Chicago Bears were the title winners.

In 1935, it was a different story as they grabbed their first divisional championship with a 7-3-2 record and then went on to win their first NFL crown by crunching the New York Giants at University of Detroit Stadium.

Although the Lions enjoyed winning seasons over the next four years, Richards sold out in 1940 to Fred Mandel, a Chicago department store tycoon. Mandel tried vainly to bring the city a winner during an eight-year regime but finally tossed in the towel.

In 1948, he accepted a check for $165,000 from a group of local businessmen who promptly named Alvin (Bo) McMillin, head coach at Indiana University, as the Lions' new coach and general manager. A re-building program was begun.

Bo's best mark was a break-even 6-6 mark in 1950 but he did a great job in "selling" pro football to the city and state. He was replaced as head coach after the '50 season by Raymond (Buddy) Parker, one of his assistants.

The building program finally paid its first big dividend in 1952 when the Lions tied the Los Angeles Rams in their conference and then defeated them for the divisional title in a playoff. It was on to Cleveland and a 17-7 victory for the NFL championship.

A year later it was a virtual repeat as Detroit, led by Bobby Layne and Doak Walker, won a second straight conference title and then edged the Browns again, this time in Detroit, by a 17-16 score on a late pass from Layne to Jim Doran.

The 1954 season again saw the Detroiters knock off the best in the west for a third consecutive conference crown. But their bid for a third straight NFL title was trumped in abrupt fashion at Cleveland as the Browns drubbed them 56-10.

Parker departed in 1957 when he suddenly resigned just two days before the team's first pre-season game. George Wilson was moved up from an assistant's job to succeed him and promptly steered the team to another championship.

(Con'd)

To do it, the Lions had to knock off San Francisco in a divisional playoff game and then once more take on the Cleveland Browns . . . the team that had defeated them by 46 points for the title just three years earlier.

The championship was played at Detroit. The score was 59-14 for the Lions.

Since 1957, the championship door has been closed to the Detroiters. They finished second three straight years in 1960-61-62 and each year were winners in the Playoff Bowl at Miami.

Early in 1964, ownership was acquired by William Clay Ford who paid former stockholders $6,000,000 for the franchise. Harry Gilmer was named coach to replace Wilson who resigned after the '64 season.

On Jan. 11, 1967, Joe Schmidt was appointed to succeed Gilmer after a brilliant 13-year playing career for the Lions, plus one season as an assistant coach.
